Pursuant to the instructions of Captain . . .
Garnasny, a background investigation was conducted on
Sgt. . . and the following is reported:

The indices of the Identification Bureau of the Berlin Police Department revealed that Anna G. was born 20 July 1944 in Berlin, Germany, the daughter of Isaac and Selma G. The same indices revealed that Anna G. does not know the whereabouts of either of her parents. The only current contact, as of 1964, was in contact with her mother for 1964. The Berlin Police Department indicated no previous arrests.

Confidential Informant T-1 stated that JACOB C. formerly resided at 2005 1st St., S.E. and 1305 1st St., S.E. in the City of Miami. Informant T-1's last known address was 3001 N.W. 1st St., Miami, Florida. Informant T-1 was living at that address with Helen, Informant T-1's common law husband. T-1 was unable to give any address for JACOB C. in Miami even though JACOB C. has been employed in Miami at the Miami Herald. T-1 has had no inquiries on JACOB C. T-1 further stated that JACOB C. has several charge accounts in the City of Miami that are past due and considered uncollectable. T-1 also stated that JACOB C. has been employed at the Miami Herald and the 500 Club, and the Club Hotel in Miami, Florida.

The indices of the records Bureau of the FBI, dated 11/10/60, revealed that JAMES C. was reported missing by his grandmother, Mrs. J. C. , of 4205 S. VICTORIA. This offense was later unfounded. A copy of this report is included as enclosure #1. A copy of the same is included as enclosure #2.

Confidential Informant T-1 states that in the spring of 1963, T-1 was employed as a waitress at the Club, a night club coffee house. During this period, T-1 worked for T-1 and took part in sex parties at T-1's residence at 3220 66th in Park View, Wash. D.C. At that time T-1 was living at 1900 14th St., N.W., phone BR 2-6882.

The indices of the Records Bureau of this Department failed to reveal an arrest record on T-1. The search of indices was made by Clerk [redacted].

The indices of the Identification Bureau of this Department failed to reveal a criminal record on T-1. This search of indices was made by Clerk [redacted].

The indices of the Records Bureau of this Department also failed to reveal any traffic tickets being issued to T-1. This search of indices was made by Clerk [redacted].

Respectfully submitted,

J. M. Clark
